

It is an outrage that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its stations to air a blatantly partisan political "documentary" during the final days before a major election.

This action is clear evidence that we need to strengthen media ownership rules and demand equal time to all points of view on the public airwaves.